Yuruma Journeys

Day 1. Friday. Rurrenabaque - Pampas del Yacuma

Night at Lodge

Lunch, dinner

Bilingual guide

- At the designated time, pick you up from the airport / bus station / hotel and transfer you to Santa Rosa in a comfortable, air-conditioned vehicle for approximately 1.5 hours. This journey offers an opportunity to observe birds, toucans, capybaras, and sloths.

We will arrive at the main port of Santa Rosa. Lunch will be served.

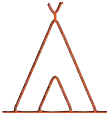

After lunch, we will navigate the Yacuma River for approximately 2 hours, with a high probability of spotting caimans, capybaras, turtles, and a wide variety of birds.

Upon arrival at the lodge, you will receive a welcome drink and settle into your rooms.

Dinner and a nighttime hike in the Pampas through the forests to discover nocturnal birds and other animals that inhabit the area.

Day 2. Saturday. Pampas del Yacuma

Night at Lodge

Breakfast,
lunch, dinner

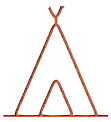

Bilingual guide

- At dawn, a boat trip to observe the wildlife at its most active.
- Breakfast followed by a hike through forests and lagoons, exploring the anaconda's habitat.
- Afterward, we'll return to the refuge for lunch. Rest.
- In the afternoon, a boat trip "Following the Dolphin's Dives," with sightings of pink river dolphins (bogey dolphins) and the opportunity to swim with them—a unique and exciting experience. Return to the refuge.
- After dinner, a nighttime boat trip to observe the bright eyes of caimans and nocturnal birds—a unique experience.

Day 3. Sunday. Pampas del Yacuma - Rurrenabaque
