Yuruma Journeys

Day 1. Friday. Rurrenabaque – Yuruma (Madidi National Park)

Night in
treetent / cabin

Lunch, dinner

Bilingual guide

- At the indicated time, pick-up from the airport / hotel / bus station and transfer to the port of Rurrenabaque. We begin the adventure navigating the Beni and Tuichi rivers, where the last Andean foothills merge with the Amazon. During the journey we pass through the impressive Bala Canyon before entering Madidi National Park.
- After 4–5 hours of navigation, we take a gentle walk along the Wabu trail (30 minutes) to reach Yuruma Refuge, located on the shores of the beautiful Santa Rosa Lake.
- Accommodation in hanging tents, a unique experience that allows sleeping suspended between the trees, or in an eco-cabin. *Depending on the departure time from Rurrenabaque, lunch will be served either on the way or at Yuruma Refuge after arrival.
- In the afternoon, guided walk along the Lucachi trail, visiting macaw nesting areas and observing endemic Madidi wildlife.
- Dinner and night walk to discover the life that awakens in the jungle after sunset.

Day 2. Saturday. Yuruma (Madidi National Park)

Night in
tree tent / cabin

Breakfast,
lunch, dinner

Bilingual guide

- The day begins with the sounds of the jungle. Breakfast.
- 3-hour walk along the Tejón trail, crossing primary forest over 300 years old, learning about ancient trees, medicinal plants, and the fauna that inhabits this ecosystem.
- After lunch, rest time by the lake.
- In the afternoon, activities at Santa Rosa Lake: canoe ride, swimming, and traditional piranha fishing, surrounded by a serene and almost untouched landscape.
- At night, dinner and cultural talk, where local guides share Amazonian stories, knowledge, and legends.

Day 3. Sunday. Yuruma (Madidi National Park)

Night in
treetent / cabin

We wake up again to the wonderful sounds of the jungle. Breakfast.

New trail exploration, deepening the understanding of the relationship between indigenous communities and the jungle, their traditional use of the forest, and its importance for conservation.

Breakfast,
lunch, dinner

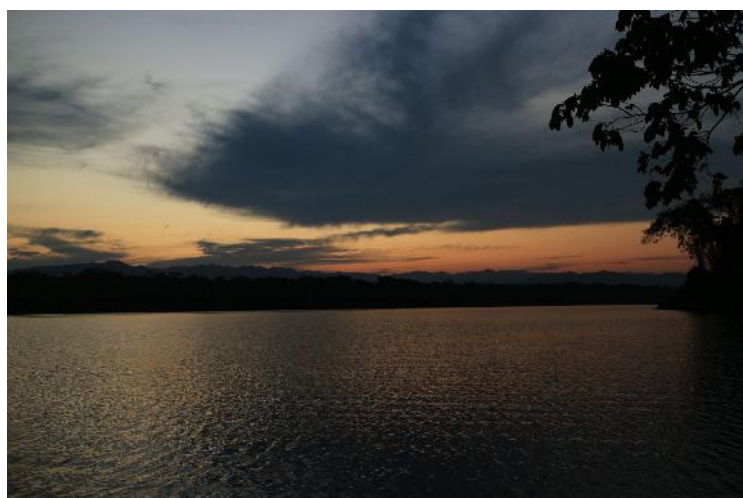

Lunch and rest time.

In the afternoon, navigation on Santa Rosa Lake to observe wildlife and enjoy the peaceful surroundings, with the possibility of seeing birds, monkeys, and other animals in their natural habitat, as well as the open lake landscape at sunset.

At night, dinner and the possibility of a night boat exploration on the lake or a jungle walk to discover the sounds and nightlife of the Amazon.
